World Mental Health Day

What is Mental Health?

How you feel about yourself and the people around us.

Our ability to make and keep friendships and relationships.

Our ability to learn from others, develop psychologically and emotionally.

We can all experience mental health problems.

Don't be embarrassed by mental health problems.