Columbus and Armstrong were very famous explorers.

Columbus discovered the Americas for Spain.

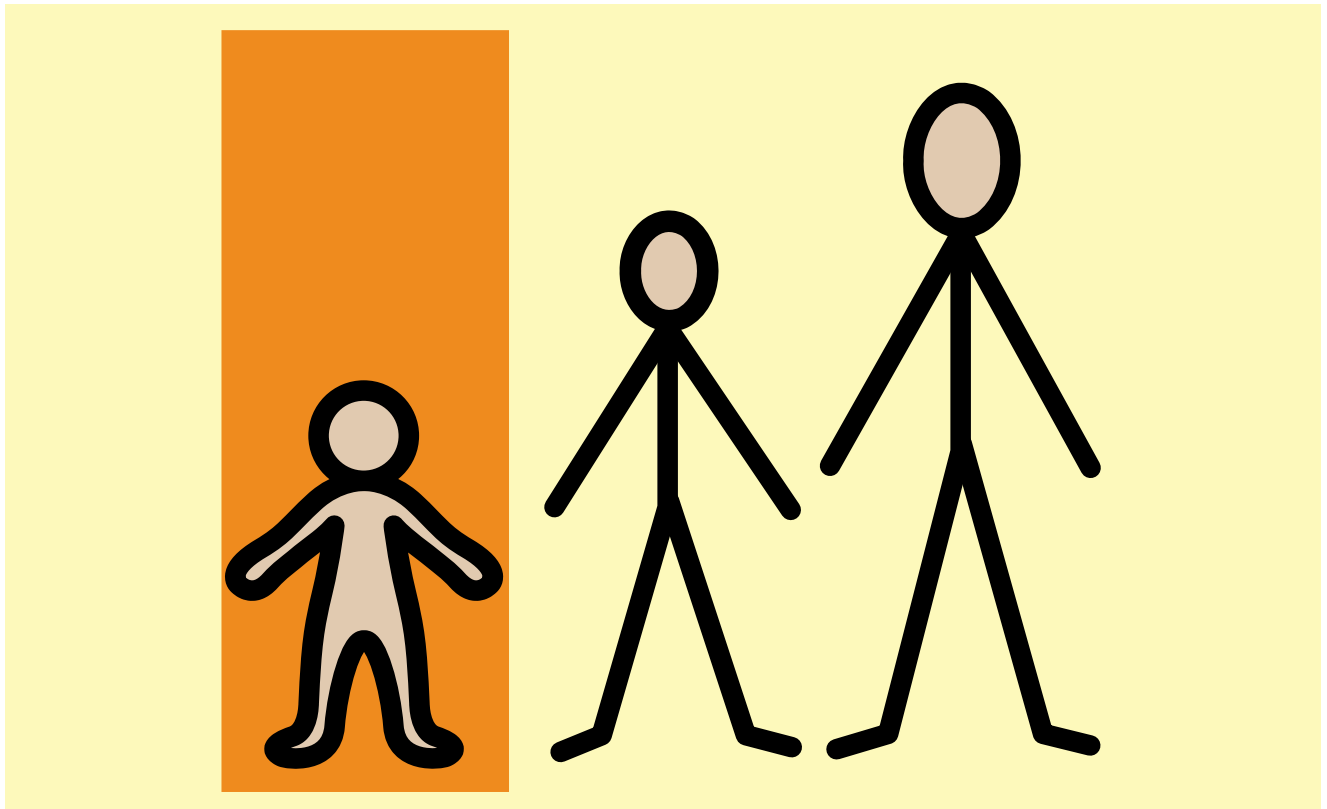

Armstrong was the first man on the moon.

They lived 500 years apart from each other.

Columbus

first

went to sea

at a very young age.

Armstrong

flew

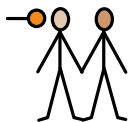

in a plane

aged

5

five.

Their

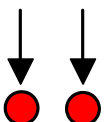

childhoods

were very important.

Both

men became very interested

in exploration.

Columbus

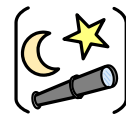

studied

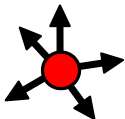

geography,

history

and astronomy.

The positions of the stars

helped

him

navigate.

Armstrong

flight

engineering

at college.

As an astronaut

he flew towards the stars.

Europeans wanted

spices

from the east Indies.

15

In the 15th Century they sailed around

Africa.

Christopher Columbus

wanted to sail

west

instead.

As a trader

he wanted to make his fortune.

Russia and America became enemies after WWII.

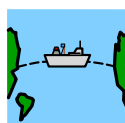

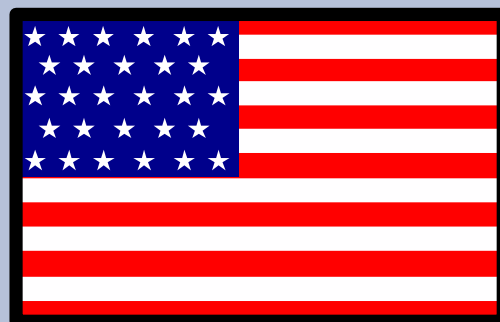

It was a cold war.

Armstrong flew for America in Korea.

As a fighter pilot he wanted America to be strong.

Columbus'

voyages

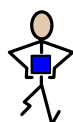

were to make

Spain

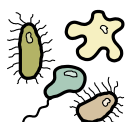

rich.

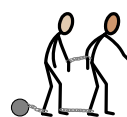

Columbus

brought diseases

and

slavery

with him.

Armstrong's

missions

helped

American

military

power.

But Armstrong's

rocket

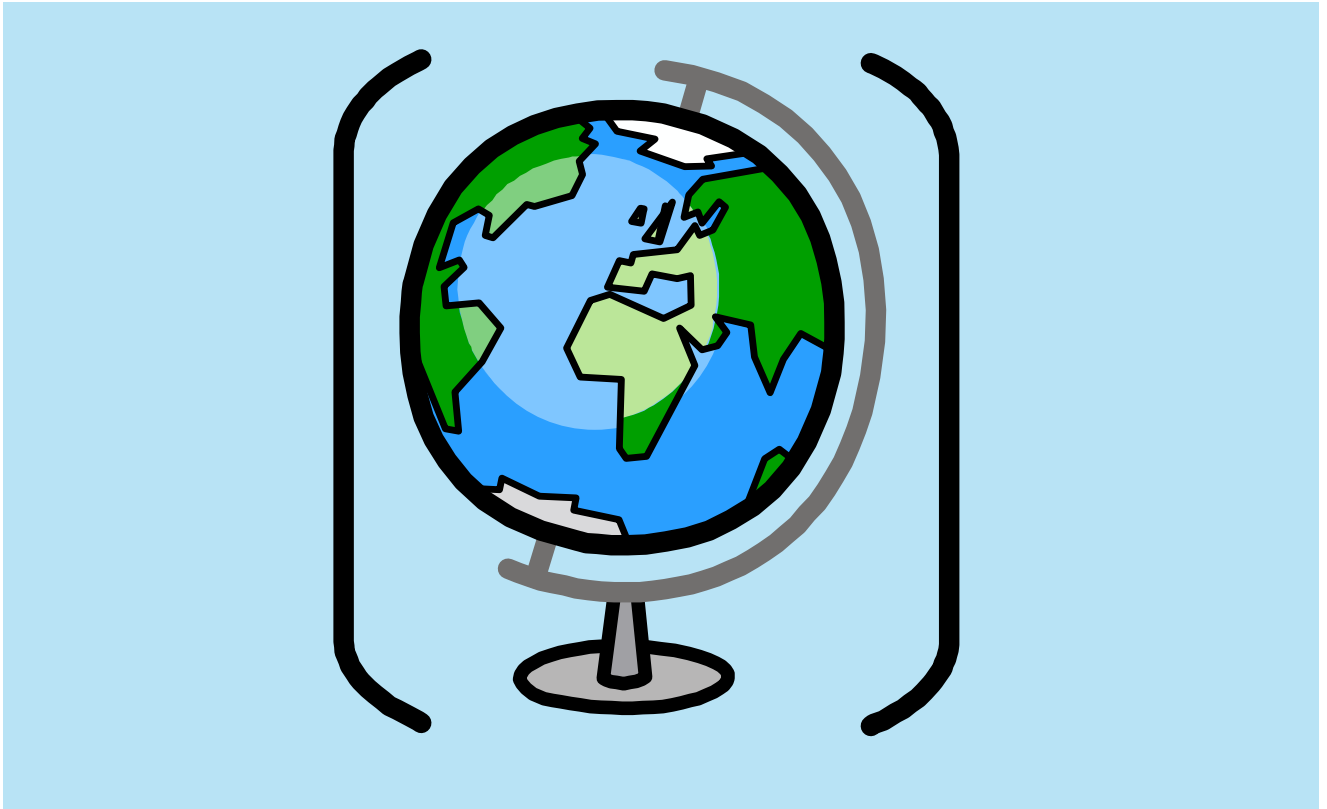

missions

were peaceful.

Columbus'

crew

mostly ate

dry

meat

and

biscuits.

His voyages

changed

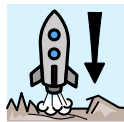

world history

completely.

Armstrong's

moon landing

changed

too.

He

ate

special

packets

of nutritious foods.

After

moon landing

retired

from

NASA.

Neil Armstrong

died

aged

82

82

in 2012.

Columbus

made

3

three more

voyages

to

the Americas.

Unpopular,

died

in 1506

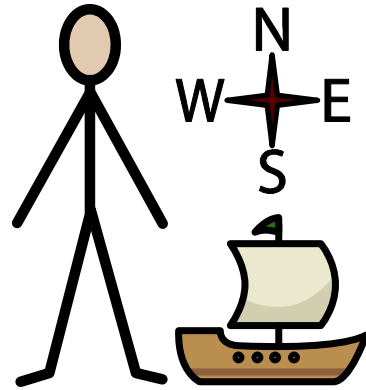

aged

55

55.
