

Stuart Hall

Text Book

Stuart Hall - Text

Published by Widgit Software

© Widgit Software 2021

This book is available electronically from

www.widgit.com/resources

Widgit Software

Tel: 01926 333680

Email: info@widgit.com

Web: www.widgit.com

All of the materials are copyright. Files and documents printed from those files may be used within the purchasing organisation. They may not be passed to other centres.

Stuart Hall was born in Jamaica in 1932.

He went to school at Jamaica College.

Stuart was a bright student who enjoyed study.

He enjoyed studying sociology and literature.

In 1951 Stuart won a scholarship to Oxford university.

He came to England with the Windrush generation.

He studied English and received a master's degree.

Afterwards he began to study politics.

In 1957 Stuart joined CND.

CND is the campaign for nuclear disarmament.

He met his wife Catherine on a CND march.

They married in 1964 and had two children.

Stuart joined the University of Birmingham in 1964.

Here he became the director for cultural studies.

Stuart examined popular arts like film and television.

He examined youth culture, music and advertising.

Stuart became an important figure in multi culturalism.

Multi culturalism is bringing together different cultures.

Different cultures have different ideas and traditions.

All types of culture were important to Stuart.

Stuart wrote about Reception Theory.

He believed that films and television had meanings.

The audience would understand these meanings.

Audiences could accept or reject these meanings.

In 1979 Stuart joined the Open University.

Universities all over the world gave him awards.

He became a very important British intellectual.

Intellectuals are clever and important thinkers.

Stuart campaigned for racial justice.

His books and teaching were very influential.

He was also a very powerful speaker.

Stuart died in 2014 aged 81.

Stuart Hall

Jamaica

scholarship

come to England

university

cultural studies

Windrush generation

television

culture

intellectual

CND

influential