

Where is Molly the Monkey?

Story written
by
Jo Griffiths

Illustrated by John Hawke

Pip the parrot was missing his friend.

Where is Molly the monkey?

"Have you seen Molly? he asked."

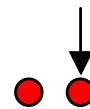

"No we have not" replied some monkeys.

Pip

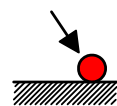

flew

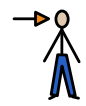

to another

tree.

There

he

saw

some more

monkeys.

"Have

you

seen

Molly?"

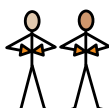

he

asked.

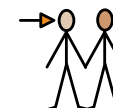

"No

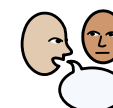

we

have not"

they

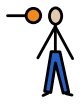

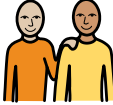

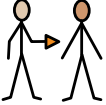

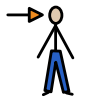

told

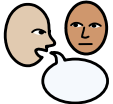

Pip.

 Pip
  was worried
  about
  his friend.

 "Molly
  where
  are
  you"
  he
  called out.

 He
  didn't
  hear
  Molly
  call back.

 "Where
  is Molly?
  he
  said
  loudly.

 Pip saw some more monkeys.

 "Were you calling Molly?" they asked.

 "Yes" replied Pip, "have you seen her?"

 "No we have not seen Molly" they said.

Pip

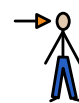

looked

everywhere for

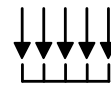

Molly.

He

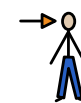

asked

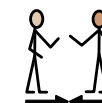

all

the monkeys

he

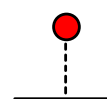

met.

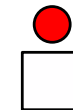

Pip

flew

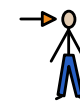

high

above the

forest.

But

he

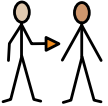

couldn't find

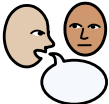

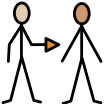

Molly.

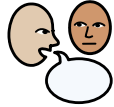

Pip sat on a branch.

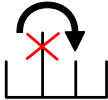

"Hello Pip, are you looking for Molly?"

 =
It was Harry the hummingbird.

"Yes" said Pip, "have you seen her?"

 "Yes"  said  Harry.

 "Molly"  is sitting  in the  next  tree".

 Pip  looked,  and  there  he  saw  Molly.

 "Molly"  called  Pip,  and  he  flew  to  her.

"Oh   where have you  been?"

"I  was  lost"  said  Molly.

"I  am  so  glad  you  found  me".

"Me  too",  said  Pip,  you're  my  friend".

Where is Molly the Monkey?

Story written by Jo Griffiths

Illustrated by John Hawke

