

Sammy the Seagull

From an original story by Kathy Michaels

This edition by Jo Griffiths

Photography by Kathy Michaels

Written from an original story by Kathy Michaels
This edition Jo Griffiths
Photography by Kathy Michaels

Published by Widgit Software
(c) Widgit Software 2013

Widgit Symbols (c) Widgit Software 2013

Tel: 01926 333680
Email: info@widgit.com
Web: www.widgit.com

www.widgit.com

All of the materials are copyright. Files and documents printed from those files may be used within the purchasing organisation. They may not be passed to other centres.

Sammy the seagull

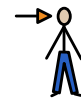

loves

to fly.

He

loves

to fly

to faraway

lands.

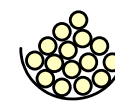

He

has seen

many lovely places.

Sammy

has always flown

alone

 Sometimes  Sammy  feels  lonely.

 He  would like  to find  a friend.

 Somebody  to make  him  happy.

 Sammy  sat down  to think.

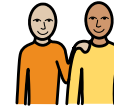

Suddenly, Sammy felt a flutter of wings.

He looked up at the bright blue sky.

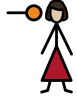

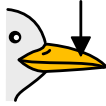

Above him was a beautiful lady seagull.

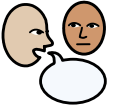

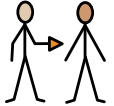

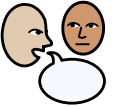

Sammy was very happy to find a friend.

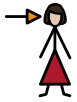

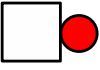

Her wings were very white and shiny.

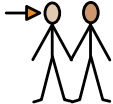

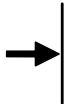

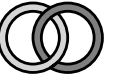

Her beak was orange.

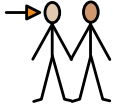

"Please can I talk to you?" said Sammy.

The lady seagull smiled at Sammy.

She flew down and sat next to Sammy.

They looked out to sea together.

They talked and smiled together.

Sammy was very happy.

"I really like you" said Sammy.

"I like you too" said the lady seagull.

"My name is Sammy" he said.

"I am called Trudy" she told Sammy.

The beautiful seagull kissed Sammy.

"It is lovely to meet you" she said.

"I am glad too" said Sammy.

"Shall we stay together as friends?"

Sammy the seagull

felt very happy.

He

was not lonely.

2

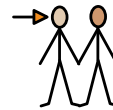

The two friends

sat

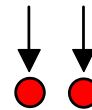

together.

They

were both very

happy.

Sammy the Seagull

From an original story by Kathy Michaels

This edition by Jo Griffiths

Photography by Kathy Michaels

